

26 Why does the value of a country's terms of trade have no monetary units?

A It cannot be calculated accurately enough.

B It includes more than one currency.

C It is a ratio of two index numbers.

D It measures change over time.