

26 Which statement is not a valid reason why a country may impose protectionist measures?

A to allow a newly developed domestic industry to grow to a viable size

B to enable a country to retain control of an industry it regards as being of strategic importance

C to give consumers a wider choice of goods and services

D to give time for workers in a declining domestic industry to find alternative employment