

28 Which formula is used to calculate the terms of trade?

A the average price of exports divided by the average price of imports

B the average price of imports divided by the average price of exports

C the value of exports divided by the value of imports

D the value of imports divided by the value of exports