

29 What would not be included in the current account of the balance of payments?

A income earned outside the country that is transferred into the country

B value of food and raw materials produced and consumed within the country

C value of food and raw materials that are exported

D value of telecommunications services that are imported