

- 20 What may prevent a government achieving a faster rate of growth of real GDP?
- A The multiplier has a small value.
  - B The consumer price index is below its target set by the central bank.
  - C The economy is operating on the vertical section of the long-run aggregate supply curve.
  - D There is a large negative output gap in the economy.