

19 What would cause an individual's demand curve for an active money balance to move to the left?

A an increase in the frequency of income payments

B an increase in the general price level

C an increase in the individual's income

D an increase in the rate of interest