

9 What would a person believe who wished to encourage the use of the market system?

A people should have equal living standards

B people should have freedom of action

C profit maximisation is wrong

D the government should correct people's bad behaviour