

25 The number of people in relative poverty in a country is decreasing.

What is the most likely cause of this?

- A a contractionary fiscal policy
- B a decrease in the national minimum wage
- C an expansion of investment in education
- D an increase in barriers to entry for multinational companies