

12 The wages of school teachers are rising.

What is least likely to be the cause of this?

- A decreased membership of teaching trade unions
- B increased awareness among parents about the importance of education
- C more restrictions on the immigration of teachers from other countries
- D the opening of new schools by the government