

16 What is likely to be found when there are many small firms in an industry?

A There are few barriers to entry.

B There is high expenditure on research and development.

C There is little competition.

D Very large capital costs are needed to establish a firm.