

1 What is least likely to increase the geographical mobility of labour?

A greater provision of information about available jobs

B improved roads and communication network

C increased opportunities for education and training

D strengthened family ties and relationships