

- 6 A car is moving in a straight line on a level road. Its engine provides a forward force on the car. A second force of equal size acts on the car in the opposite direction.

Which statement describes what happens?

- A The car changes direction.
- B The car moves at a constant speed.
- C The car slows down.
- D The car speeds up.